

Bitumen

REACH pre-registration status and registration plans

Date issued: December 2008

ExxonMobil's position is to register all key bitumen substances that are currently manufactured by ExxonMobil within the EU. We have now completed the pre-registration of these substances in line with the REACH milestones.

We currently do not expect to discontinue any bitumen supplies to our customers due to the REACH legislation.

However, should there be any changes in our supply plans as a result of REACH, we will inform our Customers at the earliest possible opportunity.

More general information on REACH and bitumen products can be found on the EUROBITUME website.
